

大作文一:积极类

段落一

In the cartoon above we can see that ____, which symbolically indicates a prevailing phenomenon. Beyond doubt, what the picture subtly conveys is ____, which is not just as simple as it looks. As a result, the picture offers us a basis to consider its positive influence.

段落二

I believe that there are two perspectives allowing us to appraise the remarkable impact of _____. In the first place, it is well-known that _____ has potentially improved all aspects of social development. In addition to the former, _____ tends to be positively affected in the aspects of individual physical and psychological development as well. For instance, success will be achieved more easily for those who have _____ awareness. Disappointingly, some of the negative factors have been ignored in recent years, which may have adverse impacts on our lives as well as the general public over time.

段落三

The active efforts of government organizations and individuals should be made to provide more energy for this theme. The first accepted proposal is for the government to awaken public awareness of this situation. Secondly, today's youth should also strive to arouse people's attention of this social problem and raise vigilance against the consequences that may hinder our development. I have always had a positive attitude towards this issue because I firmly believe that this state will eventually be ameliorated one day.

大作文二:消极类

段落一

A clear impression is shown in the illustration above, which demonstrates that _____. In fact, _____ has become a contentious topic among a considerable number of people. It turns out to be irresistible for people to ask how the issue has deteriorated into such an alarming state.

段落二

There are two main points regarding the root cause of this, I believe, although some people may take it differently. First of all, I am convinced that _____ occurs endlessly because of the loss of awareness to conduct good manners. Worse still, many people have violated moral rules, making untested information widely disseminated and replicated. Therefore, it is worthwhile to direct time and efforts towards this issue. Unfortunately, there is always a tendency in society to overlook this problem, which may have some negative effects on all aspects of society.

段落三

As far as I know, we should deal with this issue from different perspectives. Primarily, those in high positions should aggrandize public awareness of the effects that the situation result in. In addition, the participation of each individual is crucial to ensuring the ultimate success. I am convinced that these methods will lay the foundation for further development which is helpful for people to live a happier life in the future.
